HISTORIAN'S REPORT BSA TROOP 66

Immediately following each event or overnight trip, the Historian shall write a summary of the function for future reference and ideas for planning the next year's calendar. If the Historian did not attend the trip, he must still write the Report by interviewing those who were in attendance. In addition, with input from the participants, the Historian shall rate the trip on a scale of 1-5 (with 5 being awesome - the best). The Report shall be given to the Scoutmaster for review before you distribute it.
